At 13, you’re not in total control… possibly not even at 18! Feelings are often complicated, intense, and unsettling. MÉDIUM max accompanies you at your pace with captivating reading: fantasy and sci-fi, graphic novels, and books to unleash your imagination.

Here are 8 books chosen from our most popular collections: a book a month, from November to June, with stories to tell and dream about, things to reflect on while you sharpen your critical thinking and help you grasp the world around you.

Are you ready for literary adventures? Let yourself go!
Balto, the last of the heart servants
Jean-Michel Payet
Balto hasn’t been able to see Victor, his adopted brother, for four years. A rebel condemned to death in 1917, he’s on the run. Then, on the day he arranges to meet Balto at a secret rendezvous in Paris, the young man rushes in. But instead of finding his brother, he finds the corpse of an unknown man.

Bpocalypse
Ariel Holz
Eight years after the end of the world, having been swarmed by zombies and weapons, the city of Concordia is reshaping itself. Today, at the high school where survival is on the curriculum, Samsara sees two mutant twins arrive from a contaminated zone that has reopened.

Filles de la Walilü
Cécile Roumiguière
On Lurföll, a peninsula at the ends of the earth, life for women seems idyllic. They have everything – power, choice of any career, freedom to love – and they look after one another in pristine wilderness. So, why is Albaan so uneasy, troubled by nightmares and a sense of foreboding?

l’Âge des possibles
Marie Chartres
Among the Amish, the custom of Rumspringa allows adolescents to explore the modern world. They then have a choice: either stay away and cut all ties to their community or renounce modernity forever. For Saul and Rachel, lifelong friends, that time has come.

Dracula
Bram Stoker, illustrated by François Roca
Adapted by Boris Moissard
Did you know that Bram Stoker’s terrifying gothic novel ranks as the second bestseller of all time, right after the Bible? The story of Count Dracula is the source of all vampire stories. This edition is beautifully illustrated by François Roca in hues of dark nights and blood.

Tenir debout dans la nuit
Éric Pessan
Hello New York. I’m Lalie, I’m 16 and I’ve dreamt of vacationing in the city that never sleeps, and I’ve just been assaulted. Call for help? File a report? The aggressor is my friend. Or was. I’m angry. I’m frightened. Help me.
